Larry and Addie Garman are retired global missionaries with the Church of the Nazarene. They were appointed to Peru in 1964 and served in that country for 45 years.

Larry was born in Springfield, Ohio. He received a BA degree from Point Loma Nazarene University and a DC degree from the Los Angeles Chiropractic College. He studied at Biola School of Missionary Medicine in La Mirada, California, in the areas of tropical medicine and dispensary. He also was trained in dentistry.

Addie also attended Point Loma Nazarene University. Addie taught Old Testament, music, Christian education, bookkeeping, and drama. She started women's ministries in several areas and pastored two local churches. She was heavily involved in caring for Work and Witness teams.

The Garmans arrived in Peru after a year of language study in Mexico. Their responsibilities included clinical work, as well as the development of the Aguaruna Indian's work in the formation of the Bible School and the Amazon District. The Garmans are currently retired though they are still involved in God's work in South America.

The Garmans have four grown children: Guy, Gregory, Candace, and Timothy.
